

Krames Online Health Education

Dr. Larry Krames, a practicing otolaryngologist (ear, nose and throat specialist), recognized the need for illustrated, patient centered education, and in 1974 founded Krames. Now, over 30 years later, Krames is recognized as a leader in patient education with over 4000 individual publications that are distributed to 40 million patients and health care consumers each year. Professional Home Health Care is proud to provide Krames Online to our clients.

At Professional Home Health Care (PHHC) we want to enable you to continue living in the comfort of your home as long as possible. With Krames, we can participate in keeping you independent longer by educating you on how to care for your specific needs. Krames offers more than 4000 titles in 36 specialty areas. This extensive portfolio covers virtually every health-related topic, including conditions, procedures, exercises, wellness, medications and safety. Content is available in print and electronic formats, with many titles available in both English and Spanish. Evidence-based, peer-reviewed content supports health literacy and helps you take control of your own health.

In conclusion, we believe that the health and safety of Professional Home Health Care's patients is above all else. Using Krames Online prior to a doctor appointment can help you prepare questions to ask as well as answer many of your questions that you forgot to ask while at the doctor's office. Krames Online gives you the ability to search for answers 24 hours a day. You can start now by going to www.homecarephc.com and click on the Education tab, then click on the search function to begin.
